

THE STEPS INSTITUTE FOR INNOVATION IN ENVIRONMENTAL RESEARCH

Climate Solutions: Let's get moving—But where and how?
May 9, 2008, 1:30-3:30 p.m.
The Alumni Room, University Center, UCSC

AGENDA

1:30 p.m.	Welcome and Introduction of Panelists: Dr. James Estes, Interim Director, STEPS Institute, UC Santa Cruz
	Panel Presentations:
1:40 p.m.	Global and National Perspectives: Dr. Benjamin Santer Atmospheric Scientist, Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory and 2008 Fred Keeley Lecturer
1:55 p.m.	State Perspectives: The Honorable Fred Keeley Guest of Honor, Fred Keeley Lecture on Environmental Policy
2:10 p.m.	Regional Perspectives: Elizabeth Thompson Program Manager, Climate Solutions, Ecology Action
2:25 p.m.	Local and Campus Perspectives: Dr. Daniel Press Department Chair and Professor, Department of Environmental Studies
2:40 p.m.	Break: Coffee and refreshments
2:55 p.m.	Discussion: Moderators: Dr. James Estes, Interim Director, STEPS Institute and Dr. Mark Snyder, Department of Earth and Planetary Sciences
3:25 p.m.	Closing remarks: Dr. James Estes
3:30 p.m.	Roundtable Ends

Acknowledgments:

The STEPS Institute would like to thank Ecology Action and the UCSC Office of Government and Community Relations for their co-sponsorship of this event, and the following groups and individuals for their support:

- Vice Provost Lisa Sloan, Professor, Earth and Planetary Sciences
- UCSC Student Environmental Center
- UCSC Sustainability Council